I. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

25X1 1. [ ] lectured before the CIC course at Ft Holabird
25X1 on Monday 10 November. The lecture was attended by both the class DDS and many of the instructors which was judged to be about 150 total.
[ ] states that he has never had a better or more cooperative group and audience. There was no indication of any anti-Agency feeling and, in fact, red-carpet treatment was extreme. One or two points worthy of note:

25X1 a. CIC morale, according to the Major who supervises the course, and who met [ ] at the train, is very bad. Apparently the opportunities for promotion are extremely limited and experienced individuals find it necessary to leave CIC in order to progress.

b. CIC was aware of our series of presentations to the Inter-American Defense Board. CIC was astounded that we would appear "publicly" and asked, "How did you get sucked into that?"

ILLEGIB

25X1 2. A report from [ ] stated that the first pre-25X1 sentation by [ ] at Ft Meyer was a great success. As a result 25X1 [ ] was assigned the other three lectures in this series. The 25X1 second lecture, which took place yesterday, was regarded by Mr.
[ ] as just as well received. He noted that the group included a large percentage of more educated individuals who asked more penetrating questions.

II. OTHER ACTIVITIES

25X1 1. At the request of [ ] of the Liaison Division of OCR, 25X1 I talked with a [ ], who was interested in having the Information Officer assigned to the [ ] 25X1 to talk with someone from the Agency. I had first determined from 25X1 [ ] that he did not wish to be brought into the conversation or 25X1 to let [ ] know that he was employed here. I also determined 25X1 from [ ], and CIA had been collaborating in the field at [ ] in developing training for certain of their civil servants in anti-Communist activities. After checking with FE Division I found that [ ] was already talking to the Information Officer, [ ] and that the desk expected to call on SIC for assistance in providing training materials. Miss 25X1 [ ] was so advised and it was, therefore, unnecessary for me 25X1 to talk to [ ]

25X1 2. Five members of SIC attended the lecture by [ ] 25X1 [ ] with considerable experience fighting Communist jungle warfare. He recounted his experiences from a year's activity in this field in Malaya. I found the lecture interesting although it had relatively little connection with our present training activities.

25X1 3. The request to provide three days of tutorial training in [ ] source has been definitely set for 4 through 6 December.

25X1 4. FE Division has requested three days of tutorial training for a group of [ ] on 19 - 21 November.

5. Tutorial Training -

There were no requests for tutorial to be given during this period.

III. PERSONNEL NOTES
